

How do I know if I am eligible for Subsidized Childcare?

Families may demonstrate eligibility for subsidized child care services in the following ways:

- Through Child Protective Services Program (CPS) referral from a medical, legal, or social service agency.
- Through current CalWORKs participation (or participated less than 24 months ago)
- Short-term subsidies are also available through documentation of the risk of being homeless, abused, neglected or exploited.
- By establishing income eligibility. The gross family income must be within certain income limits set by the Federal and State Government. Here are the guidelines:

Number of Family Members	1 or 2	3	4	5	6	7	8
General Child Care and Development and Alternative Payment Programs	$4,030	$4,340	$4,877	$5,657	$6,438	$6,584	$6,730
State Preschool	$4,030	$4,340	$4,877	$5,657	$6,438	$6,584	$6,730
Head Start	$1,353	$1,701	$2,050	$2,398	$2,747	$3,095	$3,443

For most programs, families must also demonstrate a child care need. Need is defined as child care services needed for the following reasons: (not all apply to every family). The dollar amounts are current as July 2017.

- The parent or caretaker is employed
- The parent or caretaker is seeking employment
- The parent or caretaker is in vocational training leading directly to a trade, profession, or para-profession
- The parent or caretaker is homeless and seeking permanent housing
- The parent or caretaker is receiving public assistance
- The parent or caretaker is medically or psychiatrically incapacitated
- The child is abused or neglected or at risk of abuse or neglect (requires a referral)
